

TABLE OF CONTENTS

| | | |
|----|--|------------|
| | Prologue: The power of a few (disruptive) rules | 5 |
| | Introduction: | |
| | Changing the way we think about change | 15 |
| | Structures | 41 |
| 1 | Team 365 (the team that – almost – doesn't meet) | 43 |
| 2 | Double hats (one boss is not enough) | 53 |
| 3 | Shadow jobs | 63 |
| 4 | Everything a project | 71 |
| 5 | Management by invitation | 79 |
| 6 | Fixed-term teams | 87 |
| 7 | Net-work, not more teamwork | 95 |
| 8 | Support functions are businesses ('market tested') | 103 |
| 9 | Membership bids | 113 |
| 10 | Home effects | 121 |
| | Processes | 129 |
| 1 | Internal clocks | 131 |
| 2 | Decisions pushed down (and in real time) | 139 |
| 3 | Scan for talent, find a job | 147 |
| 4 | Fix accountabilities (if nothing else) | 155 |
| 5 | Fake project, beat Outlook | 165 |
| 6 | Un-cluttering | 173 |
| 7 | 3-way, 365 performance appraisal | 181 |
| 8 | Face it, don't email it | 191 |
| 9 | Less PowerPoint, more stories | 201 |
| 10 | Be imperfect | 209 |
| | Behaviours | 217 |
| 1 | Go to source (and turn the volume down) | 219 |
| 2 | Keep promises | 227 |
| 3 | Collaboration ('the volunteers') | 235 |
| 4 | Reward outputs | 245 |
| 5 | Behave like an investor | 253 |
| 6 | Respect the past, leave it to archaeologists | 261 |
| 7 | Ask the question | 269 |
| 8 | Lose control | 277 |
| 9 | Can it be done differently? | 285 |
| 10 | Talk the walk | 293 |
| | Epilogue: Where would you put your money? | 301 |
| | The Disruptive Ideas project | 307 |